

Company Overview

Tianjin Airlines Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as Tianjin Airlines) is based in Tianjin, the economic center of Bohai Rim. Aggressively serving development of regional economic construction and committed to providing easy and convenient air travelling service for passengers, Tianjin Airlines emerges as a new force in China's civil aviation market.

As an aviation enterprise co-established by Tianjin government and HNA Group, Tianjin Airlines owns a young and deluxe fleet mainly consisting of A320, E190 and E145. Through late years' development, Tianjin Airlines has built up an airline network with Tianjin, Xi'an, Urumqi, Nanning and Guiyang as major hubs, and opened 137 domestic and international routes to more than 80 cities. The annual passenger volume has reached over 5 million person-times.

Tianjin Airlines is engaged in meeting overall needs of passengers and keeps this promise as its service tenet. Holding to service concept of "make travelling convenient, warm and fashionable" and aiming to build a brand image of "all ways with you", Tianjin Airlines is committed to providing humanized air-ground support service and after-sale tracking service. With excellent operating quality and outstanding service quality, Tianjin Airlines was awarded 'Best Domestic Regional Airlines of China' and 'World 4-star Airlines' by SKYTRAX in 2011.

Based on philosophy of "take root in Tianjin, serve the nation", Tianjin Airlines sticks to a regionalized and localized way of operation and endeavors to become an aviation enterprise group serving development of regional economic construction.
